

Displaying user defined attributes

The user-defined attribute feature is available for both Projects and Libraries and can be managed via the Web UI. You can then set attribute values for elements that were uploaded to the projects and libraries.

- In Smart Review, on the right pane, click the Attributes panel to view the attribute values added to the file.