

XML Order files

When a shopping cart is checked out, the OPS system sends an XML file to Prinerger detailing its contents. The OPS Data Model saves these files in its `OrderStorage` directory, independently of what the processing rules do with the files. If a received order is not accepted by an RBA rule, the order file is stored in the `Rejected` subdirectory for troubleshooting.