

Scripts

The Scripts section of the Service Tree enables a service representative to run Javascripts (or scripts) that are delivered with your proofer system. All scripts end with a .js extension. These functions are useful for troubleshooting many proofer errors.

WARNING: Do not run scripts except under the direct supervision of a service representative.