

Making plates

To make plates, use a final output process template. The process template that you select contains the options that determine the result.

To make plates:

1. In the Impositions Plans pane of the Signatures view, select the signature.
2. Drag the selected elements onto a final output process template in the Process Templates pane.
3. In the Start Process dialog box, click OK.