Setting preferences

Important: Some of the options described in this topic may not be relevant to Workshop in this version of the Prinergy software

By setting the preferences in the Setup software, you can configure the ways that you prefer to work with Workshop.
In the pane on the left, click Preferences, and in the Preferences pane on the right, click the General tab to display the details of its settings.