Input files

Customer content is provided as PDF files or source document files that you must convert to PDF. You can also work with placeholder files.