Run-list pages

Run lists are like page sets in Prinergy Workflow–they display the pages of the job in reader order.

A run list organizes a product's pages in front-to-back sequence, so that the pages will flow correctly through the template pages in a layout. To help you plan the distribution of pages on the press runs, you can provide detailed information and notes about each run-list page.