n-up

The number of times that an identical product appears in one press-run layout; can be a folded-work section or a flat-work product. This term is short for number-up.