

Diagnostic techniques

To help troubleshoot RBA problems, you can add event information to e-mail messages and text files.

Add event properties to the Body parameter of the Email action or to the Text parameter of the Write Text to File action.

For example, you can use the actions to identify referenced files such as the virtual proofing files generated during a proof process.