

Using hot folders to automate Smart Layout for Nesting

Hot folders contain file-handling instructions that specifies the file-processing instructions. When a file is placed in a hot folder, the file is automatically processed according to the hot folder settings. You can access the hot folders from any workstation on the same network.

Note: For files to be nested properly, die line must be closed and not be part of the text in the file.

- Creating a hot folder
- Video: Creating a Hot folder for Smart Layout for Nesting
- Viewing hot folder status
- Working with hot folder type set to Manually