

Getting information about jobs and elements

You can display information about elements such as a job, file, or signature in Job Finder and Job Manager using the Get Info menu item.

For example, to see information about a job, select the job in Job Finder, and then from the File menu, select Get Info. The Get Info dialog box appears, showing all job attributes and the size of the job folder and other job files.