

gray component

The amounts of CMY in a color which result in neutral gray, based on the lowest separation value of the color.