

layer (noun)

Refers to the stack-order position of an image in relation to all images on a press sheet, including bottom-layer marks, content page or pages, and top-layer marks. This is a property of a press run layout. It is not the property of a specific mark or content page.