

placeholder page

A page from a file placeholder. It can be assigned placement properties such as trim size and rotation, and it can be replaced with an actual PDF page when the content is received from the customer.