

workflow

Flow of documents and processing instructions through all stages of producing a printed product; can involve multiple systems