Resetting a Forgotten Password

If for any reason a user forgets the password they used, Kodak has enabled Self-service password reset (SSPR) within Azure Active Directory to make it easy for the user to reset their own password. Instructions for resetting a user's password, are available on the Partner Place website (partnerplace.kodak.com). Authenticated customers can log in and find the instructions by searching for answer ID 76122.