

Getting started in the Administration Client

Your primary interface with the Business Link software is the Administration Client menu and tabs. To get started, you must configure the basic options and e-mail notification settings. You can then proceed to the more advanced configuration tasks to set up connections, mappings, and database backups.

To open the Administration Client:

- Select Start > Programs > Kodak > Prinergy Business Link > Business Link Administration.