

Cropmark.OffsetY

`Cropmark.OffsetY` is the primary control for this feature. This is the distance (measured in points) between the edge of the artwork's trim box and the trim box of your marks file. The larger the negative value, the more the mark will move away from the trim box. For example, `-72` moves the mark 1 inch / 25.44 mm from the trim box.