

Bypassing the Start Process dialog box

Press and hold the Alt or Option key while dragging elements onto a process template.

Note: You cannot modify the process template before starting the process or make other changes in the Start Process dialog box, such as changing the process name or priority or entering a comment about the process.

Note: For digital print jobs, you cannot bypass the Start Process for Digital Printing dialog box.