

Using a workflow template

You can use a process template in the following ways:

- Select one or more files in Job Manager, start a process, and select a workflow template instead of a process template.
- Create a hot folder, and link it to a workflow template. Using a file browser, drop the files into the hot folder.