

About opening files in other software

You can open and edit files in other software from within Workshop. You can open and edit:

- Input files
- Refined PDF pages that are not assigned to a page set or imposition
- Refined PDF pages that are assigned to a page set or imposition

You first need to configure the list of other software so that Prinergy knows where the software is located.