

How do I access the SIF file from the client?

When you start DotShop on the client computer, it automatically accesses the SIF file that is on the server, and makes screen sets available in the DotShop Properties Editor.