

Dragging a file to the preview window

You can now drag a file from the desktop, File Explorer, or Finder onto the preview window. This is especially helpful when you are overlaying a separation in a manually versioned job or adding a new separation such as a varnish layer.

- Select and drag a file from the desktop, File Explorer, or Finder onto the active area of the preview window.