

Drawing a marquee

To select the area you want to view in the main window, in the Navigation palette, draw a marquee.

1. In the Navigation palette, place the pointer outside the current selection rectangle.
2. Drag to create a rectangle outlining the area you want to view.
3. Release the mouse button.

The enclosed area appears in the main window.

