

Using process templates

A process template is a collection of options and parameters that tells Prinergy Workflow how to perform a process. Process templates can help you automate repetitive tasks. Because settings are predefined, using process templates saves time and provides consistent results.

- Process Templates pane
- Starting processes