

Job setup

1. Create a job.
Prinerger Workflow creates a folder for the job in the specified location and registers the job in the database on the Prinerger server.
You see a new Job Manager window for the job. The job appears in Job Finder within the specified job group. You can see a record of the action in History view and System History.
2. Prepare the job.

See Also

- Creating a job
- Setting job attributes and job status
- Adding an image search path