

Digital Print workflow

Prinergy Digital Print is a production tool that communicates with a variety of digital press front ends to schedule, submit, and monitor the printing of multiple documents in a digital printing environment.

Prinergy Digital Print includes two software applications:

- Digital Submit, which is the software that a CSR uses
- Digital Direct, which is the software that a digital press operator uses