

Importing incrementally

You can also import partial jobs into existing jobs. To accept a partial job, you take an existing job and set up an add-and-process hot folder linked to an Import Incremental process template. When you drop the export into the hot folder, Prinerger Workflow adds the imported files to the job.

Alternatively, you can add exported job files to an existing job:

- From the File menu, select Import Incremental.