

Customer approval of pages

Each page can have an approval status.

This status helps you work with customers using Kodak InSite. The status can also help reduce errors by preventing people from refining or generating outputs before all pages have been approved.

- Processing control