

About task reminders

You can set manual and automatic task reminders for tasks.

When the Manage Task Reminders option is configured, a task user with a defined e-mail address receives an e-mail with a reminder to perform the task.

The administrator can set up to three reminders. The system automatically checks whether the task was completed and sends a reminder if necessary.

The information regarding the reminders is saved in the Event Report.