

Creating a Proof Report for the previewed file

You can generate a PDF file that contains information about the previewed files such as file names, separation names, size, resolution and ink coverage (in percentage and units²).

1. From the File menu, select Print Proof Report.
2. In the Print Draft dialog box, browse to the location where you want to save this file, and click Print.