

InSite Prepress Portal

Welcome to the Kodak InSite system. The links appearing on the home page reflect your system licensing and the role that you have been assigned.

| In                      | You can                                                                                                           |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Customers               | Manage customers in the system                                                                                    |
| Jobs                    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Create and view jobs</li><li>• Manage job production and status</li></ul> |
| Users                   | Manage user accounts                                                                                              |
| Learning Center         | View documentation and training materials                                                                         |
| Upload Processing Rules | Configure the upload processing rules                                                                             |
| Themes                  | Manage custom themes for customers                                                                                |
| Roles                   | Define user roles and rights                                                                                      |
| Learning Center Content | Add documentation and training materials to the Learning Center                                                   |