

The Learning Center gives your Customer Users direct access to training videos and product documentation that you create from within Prepress Portal. To open it, click Learning Center on the home page.

If you have the Configure Learning Center right, you can create your Learning Center content by adding learning topics or categories, or editing their position.