

Compressing the Prinerger database

It is highly recommended to compress the Prinerger database after the Prepress Portal 11.5 upgrade. When you compress the database, it defragments the database and forces Oracle to regenerate its internal indexes, resulting in better performance.

For more information about compressing the Prinerger database, see the Prinerger System Administration Guide.