

Clean the monitor with approved cleaners

Clean the monitor display only with cleaners that are approved for use on LCD displays, so that you do not damage the anti-reflective coating. Do not use glass cleaners or other general cleaning fluids.

Do not touch the monitor display with your fingers or writing instruments.