

Target luminance of the viewing booth

The luminance of your viewing booth should be between 95% and 98% of the luminance of your fixed monitor to compensate for the imperfect paper white of a virtual proof with a color profile applied.