

Managing the connectors

Connectors define the prepress data flow that your Business Link server manages.

- For basic production-reporting data collection, you specify the Business Link and Prinergy prepress server addresses.
- If JDF job data will be used, you also set up communication with the two-way connector for the MIS server, and configure any related JDF data-handling options.