Job Layout Output Summary

This report shows which plates were output for a given job. It gives detailed information about each layout and separation in the job.

The generated report contains the following types of information:

- Job name and creation date
- Surfaces output: Layout ID, signature and sheet number, surface, operation, creation date and time, device name, media
- Separations output: Layout ID, signature and sheet number, surface, operation, creation date and time, device name, media

To generate the report:

1. Select a job. To narrow down the job list, click Search and type part of a job name followed by an asterisk (*).
2. Click pdf or html.