

color pair

Two neighboring colors in a line-work (LW) file. The software checks all color pairs and determines whether or not to create a frame between the two colors.