

contrast

The ratio between the light tones and the dark tones in an image. If you increase the contrast, highlights become lighter while shadows become darker.