

process template

A file containing options and settings that tell the workflow processor or the software how to perform a process.