

shingling

A procedure that moves the image area of a page in a specified direction, usually towards the binding. Shingling is performed to compensate for the middle pages of a folded signature extending slightly beyond outside pages.